

Brief Biosketch

Mr. Subrat Kumar Naik
Assistant Professor
Department of Anthropology
Utkal University

Mr. Subrat Kumar Naik teaches Archaeological Anthropology in the P.G Department of Anthropology, Utkal University. He has completed his MA, Mphil from Utkal University and pursuing his Ph.D in Utkal University. Previous he has served as a Junior Lecturer in Anthropology in Bhawanipatna Govt. Autonomous College. Prior to that he was working as an Excavator in the Archaeological Survey of India, Bhopal Circle, Govt. of India. He had also worked as field investigator in the research project“Indigenous Healing Practices Among the Savaras of Coastal Odisha”approved under Centre for Advanced Studies (CAS) P G Dept. of Anthropology, Utkal University.He has successfully completed assignment given by the University administration such as Asst. Superintendent of Gents Hostel- V, Programme Officer, NSS, Gents Hostel -V and Vice- President, SSG, Utkal University. He is Member of the Editorial Board of “Man in Society” The Journal of Anthropology Department , Utkal University, Bhubaneswar.(ISSN 2347-1530).

Mr. Naik has undergone training and research experiences in Archaeological Anthropology and Museology from Archaeological Survey of India, Bhopal Circle, Govt of India, Indira Gandhi Rashtriya Manav Sangrahalaya, Bhopal, Govt of India, Indian Museum, Kolkata, Govt. of India. He has also successfully completed his Knapping training on stone tools from Sharma Centre of Heritage Studies, Chennai.

His current research interest mainly focuses on Prehistoric Archaeology of India, Prehistory of Odisha and Museology. He is a very field worker basically in Archaeological Anthropology and now a days he is focused on the Prehistory of Ardhei River Valley of Keonjhar district, Odisha. He has published 4 National research articles in referred journals and has submitted 3 more for publication. He has successfully guided more than 30 MA works and ten more are working.

Mr. Naik is a member of Professional bodies such as Life member of INCAA and United India Anthropology Forum.