

Academic Programme: MA

Programme Objectives:

1. To sensitize students with the discipline of sociology, its approaches, and methodological tools.
2. To differentiate between sociological and commonsensical knowledge.
3. To educate students with research skills.
4. To provide students with a lens to understand social issues and problems
5. To enhance their employability in the job market.
6. To be agents of change

Programme Outcomes:

1. Having full-fledged knowledge on sociology.
2. Gaining knowledge on all kinds of societies.
3. Helping students get through competitive examinations.
4. For demonstrating analytical skills on different social issues.
5. To get sensitized on different sections of the marginalized.

Academic Programme: M.Phil.

Programme Objectives:

1. To make students understand the practical nuances of different types of research.
2. To apply their research knowledge
3. To understand issues from the point of view marginality.
4. To hone up their research skills.
5. Preparing students for various research position
6. To help students systematize their research knowledge.

Programme Outcomes:

1. Scholars will be able to apply their sociological knowledge to social phenomenon.
2. Help students analyze social issues using different sociological perspectives.
3. Scholars can apply and fill in different research posts.
4. To be agents of change by joining voluntary sector.

Academic Programme: Ph.D

Programme Objectives:

1. To familiarize scholars with the academic writing, and reading skills.
2. To train them to have independent publications.
3. To acquaint students with research practices.
4. To help them understand the ethical issues associated with research
5. To train them for the job markets available in higher education.

Programme Outcomes:

1. Scholars will be able to convert social problems into sociological problems and study them.
2. They will be familiarized with research practices and can have independent publications which will not only contribute to the body of knowledge but to the university profile as well.
3. They can fill up research and teaching positions.