

Brief Bio-Sketch

Dr Rajakishor Mahana
Assistant Professor
Department of Anthropology
Utkal University, Bhubaneswar -751004.

Dr Rajakishor Mahana, with more than ten years of research and teaching experience, currently serves as an Associate Professor and Head of the Department of Anthropology in Kalahandi University, Bhawanipatna. Previously, he also taught in Utkal University, Bhubaneswar, Khallikote University, Berhmapur and KISS Deemed to be University, Bhubaneswar. Besides teaching, he has also earned experience in research working with M. S. Swaminathan Research Foundation, Chennai, Indian Institute of Management, Ahmedabad, Renaissance Strategic and Management Services, Bhubaneswar, to name a few.

Trained in anthropology and development studies, Dr Mahana completed his PhD degree in Anthropology from Madras Institute of Development Studies, Chennai with fellowships from the Indian Council of Social Science Research (ICSSR), New Delhi, Malcolm Adiseshiah Trust, Chennai and the Food Security Center (DAAD fellowship), University of Hohenheim, Germany. His research interest includes: Theories in anthropology and development studies, Tribal and rural studies, Anthropology of development, post-colonial state, social movements and human rights.

He had the opportunity to participate and present two dozens of research papers in international seminars and conferences held in India, Germany, Switzerland, UK, Canada and South Africa. A dozen of his research articles have been published in national and international journals and edited volumes. He has authored four books including his recent books, Human Rights: Rhetorics and Practices. (2018, Kaveri Books) and Negotiating Marginality: Conflicts over Tribal Development in India (2019, Routledge).