No-discrimination on the ground of language:

Art 14 : of the constitution prohibits the state from discriminating on the ground of language before the law.

Art 15: Prohibits the State from making any laws or discriminating on the ground of language in the public places.

Art 16:Prohibits discriminating any opportunity of employment or promotion.

Art:23(2) of the constitution, State may impose compulsory service for public purpose but can not discriminate on the ground of language.

Art 29(2) : states that no citizen shall be denied admission into any educational institution maintained by the state or receiving aid out of State funds on ground only of religion,race,caste,language or any of them.

In India language is not an important divisible factor but plays just a minor role than the religion, castes or regionalism.
