

(All Sections are Compulsory)

Time: 90 Minutes

Full Marks: 30

Section – A

Make Comments on any TWO of the following.

*(05 Marks * 2)*

1. “Magna Carta” aspect of the Indian Constitution
2. Deletion of “Right to Property” from the Preamble
3. Suspension of Fundamental Rights during National Emergency of India

Section – B

Answer any TWO of the following.

*(05 Marks * 2)*

4. ‘Social justice encompasses primary intent of equity over equality for any welfare state.’ Substantiate the argument considering Indian democracy.
5. Universal Declaration of Human Rights symbolises both individual freedom as well as inherent dignity of any global citizen. Analyse.
6. The nature of Indian political system bridges the gap between democratic ethos and hybrid form of liberal federation. Expand a comparative view.

Section – C

Answer any ONE of the following.

*(10 Mark * 1)*

7. To establish socio-economic justice for India, DPSP acts as the pioneering element of the Constitution meant for the state action. Opine.
8. Social media & market based economy are inherent strands of the expansion of robust mass media houses in India. Share your contemporary observations being students of journalism.

(All Sections are Compulsory)

Time: 90 Minutes

Full Marks: 30

Section – A

Make Comments on any TWO of the following.

*(05 Marks * 2)*

1. “Magna Carta” aspect of the Indian Constitution
2. Deletion of “Right to Property” from the Preamble
3. Suspension of Fundamental Rights during National Emergency of India

Section – B

Answer any TWO of the following.

*(05 Marks * 2)*

4. ‘Social justice encompasses primary intent of equity over equality for any welfare state.’ Substantiate the argument considering Indian democracy.
5. Universal Declaration of Human Rights symbolises both individual freedom as well as inherent dignity of any global citizen. Analyse.
6. The nature of Indian political system bridges the gap between democratic ethos and hybrid form of liberal federation. Expand a comparative view.

Section – C

Answer any ONE of the following.

*(10 Mark * 1)*

7. To establish socio-economic justice for India, DPSP acts as the pioneering element of the Constitution meant for the state action. Opine.
8. Social media & market based economy are inherent strands of the expansion of robust mass media houses in India. Share your contemporary observations being students of journalism.

